

GOOD-TOUCH/BAD-TOUCH®
Curriculum Outline
Kindergarten and 1st Grade

Session 1:

A.) Introduction

Objectives:

- To introduce facilitator and subject of body safety
- To define sexual abuse
- To talk about safety
- To talk about each child's "specialness"

B.) Talking About Touch

Objectives:

- To help the child understand that most touch is "good"
- To help the child identify touches that are "bad"
- To define sexual abuse as confusing touch and as a sad problem children might have

C.) GOOD-TOUCH/BAD-TOUCH® Giant Storybook

Objectives:

- To reinforce through a story the concepts of good touches and bad touches
- To reinforce understanding of sexual abuse
- To teach the 5 Body Safety Rules

D.) Promises

Objective:

- To discuss "good" versus "bad" promises
- To teach children they can break promises that hurt

Session 2:

A.) Review

Objectives:

- To review each child's "specialness"
- To review good touches, bad touches, and sexual abuse
- To review the 5 Body Safety Rules

B.) Discriminations

Objectives:

- To make clear children's comprehension about touches that are sexual abuse touches versus non-sexual abuse touches
- To help children better understand the concept of "tricks"

C.) Video: What Tadoo

Objective:

- To give the children an explicit and enjoyable reinforcement of Session 1

D.) Song

Objective:

- To reinforce through song, the child's right to protect his own body